
A vintage black and white photograph. In the foreground, a man with a mustache, wearing a suit and tie, sits at a desk. He is looking down at a piece of paper in his hands, with a pen in his other hand. On the desk, there is a typewriter, a small framed portrait of a woman, and some other items. In the background, a woman in a light-colored dress stands holding a large, light-colored umbrella. She is looking down at something in her hands. The background is dark and moody, with some light effects around the woman.
