The Commune

Sonceboz-Sombeval is a municipality in the canton of Bern, located in the Bernese Jura.

Comprising two villages, Sonceboz and Sombeval, it combines rural charm with modernity, featuring lush green landscapes and outdoor activities.

Well-served by public transportation, the town offers a peaceful setting, ideal for hiking, mountain biking, and winter sports. A peaceful place, ideal for those seeking nature and tranquility.

The Project

Located in the municipality of Sonceboz-Sombeval, about 15 minutes from the city of Biel, the “Bellevue Sonceboz” project stands out for its peaceful, green setting while being just a few minutes away from the city’s urban amenities.

The project features 8 apartments in a contemporary building. The layouts range from 2.5 to 4.5 rooms, with floor areas ranging from 48 to 100 m², offering generous and well-designed living spaces perfectly suited to the needs of both families and young professionals.

The apartments feature optimal south-facing exposure and large windows, ensuring abundant natural light. In addition, each unit features a spacious terrace and a storage unit.

In addition to these amenities, enclosed garages are available for sale at a price of CHF 20,000 each, and outdoor parking spaces are available at a price of CHF 10,000 each.

Situation

The project benefits from a quiet residential setting in the heart of Sonceboz-Sombeval, in the Vallon de Saint-Imier.

Right nearby: CFF train station with fast connections to Biel and Tavannes, easy access to major highways, local shops, schools, and restaurants.

Surrounded by nature and Jura landscapes, the location offers an ideal balance between mobility, amenities, and quality of life.

Construction

This project perfectly meets the requirements for responsible consumption and environmental impact, thanks to solutions such as the air-to-water heat pump, double-pane insulated windows, and photovoltaic solar panels.

To allow you to add your personal touch and good taste to your future home, the finishes are up to you.

The construction specifications and the budget for the finishes can be provided upon request.

Currently under construction, the apartments are expected to be ready for their owners by summer 2026.

Finishes can be chosen according to the buyer's preference
